Code of the Suburb: Inside the World of Young Middle-Class ...

Code of the Suburb is a book about drug activity in such a neighborhood. A central assertion of Code of the Suburb is that middle-class white youths enter the path of drug sales in pursuit of appearing "cool," and being needed and famous among their social groups. Selling drugs keeps them in the loop with everything going on within these groups.

Code of the Suburb: Inside the World of Young Middle-Class ...

Code of the Suburb is an entertaining, informative, and important glimpse into the world of drug dealers operating in the power-washed underbelly of suburban America. A quick and fun read, this book is a must for any student, scholar, or policy-maker interested in how the social structure of communities can promote or discourage cultural attitudes toward violence.
